“ Remembering this bright artistic young man ,who danced so loving along so many of our children, my daughter being one of them. So sorry for the families loss, Patti Howard

“ Adam's story was that of an artist willing to overcome any hurdle so that he might pursue his craft. I got to hear Adam tell his story at a TedX event in Riverside a couple of years ago, and had the privilege of being in a Toastmasters group with him as he prepared. I can still recall him as a high school chamber singer with my daughter. He was always an extraordinarily gifted young man, willing to share his creative soul with the world.
