“ Grandma. You are at rest and not suffering anymore. It hurt me so much to see you in the last days of your life. Being at your side all I could do was think about all of the good happy times I had with you. I miss those times but I know that you are with grandpa Pina and you are both together again and are hugging and dancing together again. I miss you grandma and I love you grandma. I will see you again one day.
