

Carlos Vera

November 4, 1959 - December 30, 2025

Words cannot describe the amazing man that Carlos Vera was. He was a beloved husband, father and grandfather. He made friends everywhere he went and was loved by many. He was known for his sense of humor and sarcasm.

Carlos Vera was born in Tijuana, Mexico on November 4, 1959 and later moved to Anaheim, California where he went to high school and made many long time friends. He met Marsela Rodriguez in Mexicali, Mexico and married her on March 31, 1984 . A few years later he had his daughter, Karina on September 18 1991. He had a small family but they loved each other very much.

Carlos worked very hard all his life for his family and for himself. He took immense pride in his work, often bragging about the projects he completed and showing off pictures of his job sites. He built lasting friendships with colleagues, creating bonds that went beyond the workplace. Outside of work, he enjoyed his cars. He always spoke fondly of his Camaro and loved working on his Challenger and more recently, his Bronco. He also had an impressive collection of hot wheels and had always hoped to pass them down to a grandson. He also enjoyed going shooting with friends and family. He had a deep appreciation of history, he loved stories of the Mexican revolution and was very proud of his heritage. In addition to the history, he also enjoyed traveling to Mexico and cherished the culture, landscapes and connection to his roots.

As of recently, his favorite hobby was being a grandpa. Carlos was completely infatuated with Christian, he made so many changes for the sake of his Grandson. He was excited to live his life as a grandpa.

He passed away December 30, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of hard work and love. Though he is deeply missed, his memory lives on in the stories shared, lessons taught and the family he deeply cherished. Now he is able to watch over his family from heaven.

He will always be remembered and forever loved.

“ Carlos was an amazing person. He came over to visit us for dinner and walked in with that beautiful smile and kind heart. He brought wine and appetizers and you could tell he was so proud of himself for picking the right cheeses, bread and wine. We had the best time with him. He left wearing his amazing smile. We will never forget that day. Rest in peace Carlos.

“ To the family of Carlos Vera: So sorry to hear of his passing. He was a funny guy but when he wanted to make a point of something he did. I worked for CPS environmental group, which was the parent company of Lindmark Engineering so I had close contact as I was the receptionist there. He also did some electrical work for me when I lived in Rancho Dominguez. He was really a good guy may he rest in peace.
