“ when you love someone as much as you possibly can and they love you back even stronger..my tito was the best human being, so beautiful..it's so difficult trying to explain a love like his, the type of respect and care this man gave to his family was amazing. Nothing in this world can compare to him and what he did for all of us. Nothing was ever too much for him, we were all so perfect to him..he was perfect to us. We are so broken that he was taken home so soon..it's hard to know that the good do suffer the most. no one really understands the way life works, but I wanna believe that we're not meant to understand..my grandfather was so humble and saw the good even in the worst times. He was so inspiring, a true man and gentlemen. His traits/teachings will never be forgotten, all things he taught my family and I will forever live on. HE will forever live on. My grandfather was strong.. so strong mentally and physically. he was/is so amazing and perfect in every way

“ My Dad Cesar Rosas Ochoa was indeed a beautiful person..he loved us, protected and gave us everything he could. He believed in keeping family together no matter what we went through in our lives. We have had a great loss and it will be hard everyday to know our Dad is not with us..but he left us so many memories. He left us so many hugs, kisses and smiles of pride. We will honor our Dad and do our best to CONTINUE to be there for one another, love each other and help others just like he did. We love you Dad forever and ever. We are heartbroken but we could no longer see you suffer you were too good of a person for that and we could not stand it anymore God has truly gained another beautiful Angel.Love you Viejito
