

Dae Sung Lee

March 9, 1938 - September 23, 2024

I want to remember and celebrate the life of my mother-in-law. I've known her for 14 years since I married her son in 2009. Living with her and my father-in-law was a mix of ups and downs, but I remember that time with much fondness and joy.

After my father-in-law passed away in 2020, it was just my husband, my mother-in-law, and me. I always admired how devoted she was as a mother, grandmother, and wife. She always put others' needs before her own. I'll always remember how she was worried about feeding me breakfast even though I rarely wanted to eat.

Even though we lived together, I wish I had spent more time with her. I think about how lonely she must have been after losing my father-in-law, and I regret not showing her more love and affection.

I wish I had told her how much I appreciate everything she did for me and my husband. Now that she is in heaven with loved ones who have gone before her, I wish her peace and happiness knowing that her children and their families will be fine.

I want to tell her that I love her and she was loved by so many. Thank you for everything. Until we meet again, goodbye mom!
