Deborah Nicholson (March 28, 1953 – August 10, 2023)

Deborah Nicholson, a cherished sister, mother, aunt, devoted grandmother, and friend passed away on August 10, 2023, at the age of 70. Born on March 28, 1953, in Norwalk Connecticut, her life was a testament to the power of love, family, and the joy found in life's simplest moments.

Deborah found great joy in her role as a mother. She embraced her responsibilities with grace and dedication, creating a warm and inviting home where love and laughter thrived. Her children Jennifer Platt, Tobias Nicholson, and Tanya Juarez are forever grateful for the tremendous love and support they received through their lives.

Her most cherished title, however, was that of Nan. Her eyes would light up at the mention of her grandchildren, and she eagerly participated in their lives. Her unconditional love, big hugs, and infectious laughter made Nan's house a joyful place to grow up. Her legacy will live on through the lessons she imparted and the love she showered upon them.

Deborah's life was marked by love and unwavering support for her family and friends. Her selflessness and ability to find joy in everyday moments set an example for all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Though she has left this earthly realm, Deborah's spirit continues to shine in the hearts of her family and friends. Her memory serves as a reminder to embrace each moment and to hold dear the bonds of love that tie us together.

“ A Letter to My Sister

Dear Deb,

The sadness I feel writing to you is overwhelming. It never occurred to me that Gods plan was for you to see Heaven before me. You have been an inspiration in my life. Together we shared all the things that make an everlasting bond~ the good times the bad times our hopes and values, family and life in general, Oh Yes, politics. We learned so much about life from our conversations laughing hysterically and crying tears that came with gentle heartfelt hugs. I love you so much and miss you dreadfully I am so grateful to have you for my “Best Sis” and “Forever Friend”. Rest Peacefully. ❤️
