“ Aunt Elaine , although you were a quiet lady, your presence was always known. You set, by example, how a true lady should behave. I have always been so proud my parents saw fit to honor me by giving me your name. I love you and may you rest in peace. Love Your niece and namesake, Robyn Elaine.

“ My heart is so broken that God has called you home Grandma. I understand there is a reason you had to leave, but I know that you will always keep a watchful eye on me like you did when I was young. Some of my most fondest memories was spending time with you and Grandpa when I was young. The best most loving Grandparents any kid could ever ask for. My Goodbyes are not the end. I'm just simply saying "until we meet again." I love you.

“ Andrea and kids and family - So sorry to hear of your loss. Death brings so much sorrow. It creates a void within that never quite gets filled. Another person, things, life events - can't fill it. Warm memories tend to ease the pain, though, as time goes on. Be encouraged always in knowing that God is in control of all things. Love you all. april

“ Aunt Elaine, you were more than just my aunt. You were my other mother, an extension of Daddy and my kindred spirit. Words cannot express the depth of my love for you. We are all comforted in knowing you are home and heard the words "well done my good and faithful servant". Thank you for the legacy you have left not only for our family but to everyone that your life touched. Love you, Patrice

“ Mom, you were more than just a mom to me, a friend, a shopping buddy, prayer partner, listening ear, shoulder to cry on, most of all my hero. You not only told me to trust in Jesus but you showed me through the way you lived your life. I love you so much & I'll see you again when it's time. w
