“ My memories of Sweet Elizabeth R. Cook, aka Sister Cook, are many. She played a pivotal role in my return to church after many years. She treated me with love and kindness, and, when needed, gently corrected me as though I were her own daughter. She became my go-to person for wisdom and honest answers.

I have more than 30 years filled with special moments and conversations, each of which I will cherish forever. We served together for nearly a decade in a church calling, and during that time, I learned so much from her deep knowledge of the gospel and the many talents she shared.

My last memory of her is when she was in rehab and battling bronchitis. As I was leaving, I turned around, rubbed her leg, and she said, "I love you, sweet girl." Those words will stay in my heart forever.

“ One of many memories I have of Elizabeth Cook, aka Rosalie Cook, aka My 2nd Mom, is of her sharing her favorite recipes with me. Just recently, I was going thru my recipe box, and found 6+ recipes she had shared since 1980!! The Cook Family is my 2nd Family, and they were a part of my life as a kid growing up and as an adult also. God Bless You Mom #2!! Love You and Will Miss You.

Rosalie was a cousin her New Mexico & Texas kin lost touch with as we grew up, married & moved. Would appreciate seeing her full obituary & how to contact survivors again.
