“ My dad was a kind and gentle man who missed my mother so very much over 2 years. He loved all of his children, step or natural, as well as his grandchildren and great grand children. His last few months on earth were very hard on him and I'm sure he knew his time was short. He felt that my husband, his son in law, was the most amazing friend and confidant during his final years. He has left a very large hole in my heart but I am so happy he is no longer struggling. Love from your baby girl Lori

“ You have my deepest sympathy. There is nothing like losing a loved parent. There is no way to fill the hole in your heart. Time allows more memories to dull the pain you feel. I am certain he was secure in the love you shared with him. All my best, Norene Bowers
