“ Ive known Jim since 5th. grade I named my first son after him,, we all promised we would name our sons after each other I was the only one. I would eat my house and run to his house and be invited to eat there. I called Jim every birthday , When I left my 1st wife I lived with him in San Diego every morning he would leave 20$ fore me to play pool till he got of work..I loved him like a brother , good by old buddy john
