“ John was the first person I knew to burn homemade CDs. I still have the CDs he made me. He was also the first to have a mobile headset for his phone. I was so impressed that he could talk while walking around the house, when I was still using a 30 ft. extension cord. Fond memories.

“ I remember in the 5th or 6th grade at St. Catherine's, he would do the "Spock V" since he was a big Star Trek fan. Miss you. Old School chum, Ruth Greenawalt Holland.
