José Angel Dominguez

April 7, 1944 – December 9, 2025

José Angel Dominguez passed on peacefully on December 9, 2025, at his home, surrounded by the love of his wife of 56 years and his family. A beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, José lived a life guided by faith, hard work, and deep devotion to those he loved. José and his wife Angelina moved to Riverside California over 54 years ago, and lived in the same house he re-built for his growing family, until his passing. For 33 years, he worked for the Burlington Northern Santa Fe (BNSF) Railway. His appreciation for the railroad was evident in his work ethic, workmanship, and dedication to BNSF. José's family feel profoundly blessed to have spent the final months of his life by his side, cherishing every moment together. He will be remembered for his strength, wisdom, faith, sense of humor and unwavering unconditional love for his family. His legacy lives on in the many lives he touched and the family he built together with his loving wife Angelina. José will be deeply missed and forever loved.

José Angel Dominguez

Abril 7, 1944 – Diciembre 9, 2025

José Ángel Domínguez falleció pacíficamente el 9 de diciembre de 2025 en su hogar, rodeado de su esposa y su familia. Amado esposo, padre, abuelo y bisabuelo, José vivió una vida guiada por la fe, el trabajo arduo y una profunda devoción a sus seres queridos. José y su esposa Angelina se mudaron a Riverside, California, hace más de 54 años y vivieron en la misma casa que él reconstruyó para su creciente familia, hasta el día de su fallecimiento. Durante 33 años, trabajó para la compañía ferroviaria Burlington Northern Santa Fe (BNSF). Su aprecio por el ferrocarril se reflejaba en su ética de trabajo, su profesionalismo y su dedicación a BNSF. La familia de José se siente profundamente bendecida por haber pasado los últimos meses de su vida a su lado, atesorando cada momento juntos. Será recordado por su fortaleza, sabiduría, fe, sentido del humor y su amor incondicional e inquebrantable por su familia. Su legado perdura en las muchas vidas que tocó y en la familia que construyó junto a su amada esposa Angelina que estuvieron casados por 56 años.

José será profundamente extrañado y recordado con amor para siempre.
