“ I believe Joe during the last couple of years especially was seeking God in a deeper way. I believe he put his trust in Christ. I am always reminded how fragile life is and what a gift it is from God. To follow Christ is to want to become more like Him, to die to our old self and become like new, born again into a new life. Christ is the anointed one and to be a Christian is to also be anointed with the Holy Spirit and the follow him every day of our life. I am so blessed that Joe Started down this path with God. Dear Lord, may your blessings and comfort and your Spirit rest on Joe's Family and friends. —

“ One of the best memories I shared with Joe was when I first applied to his law firm to get a paralegal experience in the early 90s. Joe advertised in the Daily Journal for a paralegal trainee. I tried calling the same number for a week, but I could not get through. The phone was not ringing. On my last try, Joe answered the phone and was very surprised. “How did you get through? My number was incorrectly posted!” I told him I tried switching the last two numbers, and I finally got through! He laughed so hard and asked me to report to his Rancho Palos Verdes office. The hourly rate that he advertised was way too low, but my first check reflected three times the hourly rate that was originally offered! Joe was the most generous and kindest boss I have ever had. I will never forget when I moved to a new apartment, he and his wife Lil bought me a brand-new leather sofa bed and a refrigerator. My professional relationship with them became an everlasting friendship. Joe will be missed and will always be remembered as a kind-hearted, compassionate human being.
