“ Words cannot express what having MamaGarner embrace me as a teenager meant to me. Through AnnGee, she became part of my extended and supportive village. We don't get to choose our biological family....but in this sense a family choose me...when they didn't have to.... I got lucky by having a family embrace and accept me as one of their own. She will be dearly missed....I am so glad I recently got to sing to her for her birthday and also have her here with me in a birthday surprise for mine...Love Forever and Always, - CeeCee

“ Mother In Heaven
Dear Lord
If roses grow in Heaven, Lord,
Please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother’s arms
And tell her they’re from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek,
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it everyday,
But there’s an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

“ I’m struggling to find the right words to capture what Grandma meant to me, because she was, everything.

Losing her leaves a void that can never be filled, but the love she gave us is a treasure we’ll carry always. Her memory isn’t a sad chapter we close, it’s the beautiful foundation on which our lives are built.

I love you, Grandma. Thank you for everything.

“ Every memory we shared plays in my mind, and I'll cherish them always. I'll miss your laughter, your light, and the joy in your eyes when you spoke about the children you taught. Not many people get to learn from their great-grandmother the way I did it's an honor I'll carry forever. I know you're now at peace, rejoicing with the one you love most.

“ Momma was the heart of our family — a woman of unshakable faith and quiet strength. Her love for Christ guided everything she did, and her resilience taught us how to stand tall through life’s storms. No matter the struggle, she never stopped believing, never stopped loving. Her spirit of perseverance and grace still lives in us, reminding us that faith can carry you through anything.
