“ My loss of friends and comrades is accelerating. Now I've learned that my 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment squadron commander with whom I served in Fort Meade and Xuan Loc has died. The day I met him in February 1966 - I had just returned from Germany - we talked in his office and then he asked what I'd like to do. I told him I would like to command a troop of Armored Cavalry. He said, "you have F Troop. Shall we visit?" I said, "yes, sir" He said, "good - stand horse." And I knew I was really in the Cavalry. We were young then - and cavalrymen. Now I look forward to seeing Col Horne at Fiddler's Green.
