“ My dearest uncle. I'm so sorry you had to leave us so soon. You left behind so many people who love you and miss you already. I love you so much and wish I could have seen you again before you left us. You will always be in our hearts and our memory's forever and always.

“ Fond memories of Larry, baby sat all three; Sunday am at Grandma Straub's for pancakes, Sunday afternoon at Uncle Ralph's in Compton. Lots of kids with Larry being in the midst. He is missed in my heart and life. Good thoughts and prayers to his whole family of love. Wish I could be there to greet you all in the Warden and Straub names. You will be surrounded by a "great cloud of witnesses" lifting your hearts and spirits. Be at peace. Uncle Jay

“ My life is so much better having known you and sharing life experiences with you. Thank you for blessing me with your daughter who has given me 3 wonderful children and you 3 wonderful grandchildren. I don't know how to tell my boys because you meant the world to them. You will be missed beyond words Larry. It is truly an honor to have known you. Love you.
