“ Margaret was a fascinating woman.....Very European in demeanor but true American to the bone. I have very fond memories of her which brings a pleasant smile to my face. I shall always miss her

“ Margaret was my very best of friends for many, many years. We worked together, played together, laughed and cried together. Even our boys spent quite a bit of their youth together. I shall miss terribly that unique, slight accent in her voice and her sense of humor which came across at times when least expected. She will forever be Margaret Number One to me. God rest her soul....Our deepest sympathy Margaret #2 & Bill
