“ Dearest Mark...When you passed away, it felt like pain was heaped upon pain. I think I have been in a bubble, staying away from reminders of that pain...but you Sir, are not forgotten.Love,Kimberly

“ Mark, of all the things I'll miss about you, is not getting to the reunion this year.You had an unusual sense of humor, not that I have room to talk, but what others thought didn't slow you a bit.

“ My sincerest sympathies to the family. Mark told me to think about it, when I got married. He said , "you'll be married a long time, and dead a long time, so don't rush into either one." well, I don't think he rushed into either. He lived life at one speed, hiw own. Will miss him, and am saddened by the loss of a good man

“Oh no, not you...!” A man who brought smiles to my face even when he couldn't help me over the phone at ProAir West. I was fortunate enough to meet him when he came to Elkhart, IN over the years. Mark was always full of jokes and he will be missed, but remembered with infinite smiles! My thoughts and prayers are with all those he touched in this life.

“Mary and Family:I was saddened to hear of Mark's passing. God is getting one of the best! May he rest in peace and may you and family find solace and peace in knowing that he'll keep all in heaven in smiles and laughter. I treasure the card games and times we all had at the Octoberfest at the Seminary. I'm sending hugs and love to you all. Ana
