“ Dad,I can't believe it's seven months today since you passed away and it still feels like its just a horrible dream that I can't wake up from . I think I'm gonna see you or gona hear your voice when I pick up the phone when it rings ..I wish I could have told you that I loved you alot more often and wished that I had really sat down with you and said thank you for being my dad and even when things were not that great when we were growing up I still love you. I also wished I got a chance to say thanks for letting me move in with you when I had no license which u made me save up to get it back so I can drive again which I'm pretty sure u helped me get my license quicker by adding money to pay my fine's faster. Well at the end I'm Glad we spent those last years together and am happy you got to meet , spoil and love your very first grand-daughter for the first 6 years of her life . she will always have a special place I. Her heart for her papa...well this actually makes me feel a bit better when I write something in here to you I guess that's why I do it . I will always love you and I very much miss you .love Ray Jr (little rag)
