“ I was deeply saddened when I learned of Ruthie's passing. During the short time that I managed her care at Welbrook, we became very close, and prayed together frequently. I will miss her, and extend my deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Remembering a very precious Aunt whom we loved and honored. Aunt Ruthie was a wonderful lady, funny, loving, but most of all our Aunt. We will miss you Aunt Ruthie but know that one day our paths will cross again in God's house and we will once again be blessed by you. We love you and will miss your sweet smile, but we know you are now walking on streets of gold with all those that have gone on before you. Until we meet again we will have memories of you that will last a lifetime. Love to Greg and Connie and Kimi and know our thoughts and prayers are with you as well. Love Stan and Debbie Blanchard, Stanley and Stephanie
