“ Here we are 2020 and I STILL think about Sarah. I met her when I worked at Kaiser Hospital. She would always come to the pharmacy and brighten up my day. I had no idea she had passed, until now. I often think about her husband... since 2012 Ive prayed and prayed for this couple. I was blessed enough to have met Sarah. She loved hearing about my son Oscar. She often asked about him and was the sweetest little lady. Mrs. Price, you definitely touched hearts and mine is one of them. Sending hugs up to heaven, I know you still come and visit me.

“ I met Mrs. Sarah at CRC I must admit I admired her style. From head to toe always put together from her lipstick, and her leather pants proved age was just a number, her spunk brought a smile to your face, her smile was warming, her welcoming personality and giving heart brought others around her especially when she warmed our mornings with coffee. Mrs. Sarah always giggled "I lost track of the scoops but coffee is ready" she sure made my mornings. I had been missing her for awhile, I has asked for her on different occasions always hoping she was ok. Unfortunately her passing has left a void in our building, from that welcoming smile in the morning, little conversations while she filed paperwork and her wave as she left fir the day. Mrs. Sarah is missed very much but I am thankful to have been able to meet such a beautiful young spirited woman. May she rest in peace and my the memories warm your heart.

“ Sarah you are gone from our world but you still live deep in my heart and thoughts. The kindness you showed helped me get through a pretty rough time after losing my dad. You were such a blessing and the nicest person I have known at CRC. Thank you for all of your love and your funny warm sense of humor that helped me see that there is a silver lining in everything. You are my angel and I look forward to the day when I can see you again. Rest peacefully Sarah. Love you.

“ Sarah was one of my best friends. The kindest person I have ever met. The day we heard about Sarah's passing, so many people came to me, to let me know that Sarah helped them through a difficult time in their life. I know how much Sarah meant to me, but it was amazing how many people she touched and helped. I love her so much, and I miss my friend. My life is so much better with her in it. I am a better person because she came into my life. All my memories are great ones. I was the lucky one, I got to spend my days sitting next to her, learning, laughing, oh and working it has not been the same since she left. See you later Sarah, I love you!.
