“ So sad to hear of the loss of my dear friend, Sue. I first met her when we were studying for our Grad School exams together, and then licensure exams. A forever-friendship was spawned, even though decades separated us in years. Life took me miles away, but the memories of laughter, stories, support, and eternal loving kindness will always be with me. Rest, my friend.

“ My heart goes out to Sue's family and dear friends at the sudden loss of this most beloved woman. She was a kind and giving soul - and still is! May these words by Kevin Healy, who wrote his own eulogy, bring some comfort. TogethernessDeath is nothing at all. I have onlyslipped away into the next room. Whatever we were to each other, we still are. Call me by my oldfamiliar name. Speak to me in thesame easy way you always have. Laugh as we always laughed at thelittle jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it always was. Thereis absolute unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mindbecause I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past. Nothing has been lost. One brief moment, and all will be as it was before - only better. Infinitely happier. We will be one, together forever.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Sue's family, friends and colleagues. My parents, Kathy (Kiklas) & Bob Belanger had been good friends with Sue and her late husband Earl since the 1950s. I have faint, but fond memories of our families getting together when I was little. What I do remember was Sue's warm smile and laugh. She was a very dear friend to my mother. After many years, I was fortunate enough to recently meet up with Sue and her daughter, Leslie when they took a road trip out to the southwest. We reconnected and enjoyed a hearty breakfast at the Crown Railroad Café in Flagstaff, AZ. I was amazed at how great Sue looked for her age and noticed what a good listener she was. She will be deeply missed.

“ Sue will be truly missed. I loved working with her in the Riverside Superior Court. She was an outstanding mediator and highly respected. Every time I walked by her office, she invited me in to talk about my family and her family. She was ALWAYS happy and very proud of her children & grandchildren. We often talked about losing weight but not until tomorrow. Just like you, I have many, many fond memories of this beautiful woman. Anna Leath, court reporter

“ I met Sue in early 1957 accompanied by our soon to be husbands, friends and roommates, Earl and Bob Belanger. Our nine babies were born in a few short years and through the years Sue and I shared the ups and downs of family life. Sue, I will miss our dinners and the road trip we planned for later this year after your recovery from back surgery. How lucky we all were to have the blessing of your unique, loving and beautiful self.

“ I remember Sue when I was very ill and her dad was my Doctor, I remember Sue in High school when she was so popular and loved. I remember when I moved to Riverside and she was a new wife and mother. Memories of her calling me in the early sixties to go on a blind date with recently widowed brother in law Bill, what a wonderful man. I remember Sue last year at a reunion with her contagious smile and laughter, I shared how wonderful she looked. Sue was so loved and welcomed by everyone. Very few ladies cannot be replaced and SUE was one of them. She will be missed deeply. My condolence to her family.

“ If I could speak to you one last time:I will miss you, Aunt Sue, so very much. I have treasured our phone conversations since Mom passed several years ago. You seemed to have a sixth sense about when I needed some "mom" support. You would call and say, Hello my darling daughter! That caring voice could light up my day.For you, Sue: It's five o'clock somewhere!With much love,Karin and Bob Finizio

“ I met your Mom when she came to volunteer at Alternatives to Domestic Violence in the 1980's. We continued to run into each other over the years as I worked in the criminal justice system. Your Mom had the greatest laugh and smile. She will remain in my thoughts and memories. Take care of yourselves. My thoughts and sympathy is with your family.

“ I worked with your mom at Family Law Court for several years. She was a ray of sunshine, always happy and smiling. She spread that sunshine to everyone at work. She was loved by so many. I was so fortunate to spend time with her after we both retired, I will miss her dearly, but I am glad she is with her beloved Earl, who she missed so much. I will keep your family in my prayers.
