“ Tom was a big help to me -- twice. I was holding a public hearing in 1974 at a Milwaukee south side library when neighbors began screaming at me. I was accused of being a newcomer from Washington DC trying to change a neighborhood in a city of which I had no knowledge. I lost my temper and yelled back that I had lived in the Milwaukee area since 1951, having been away for just four years to work for a congressman. Tom came up behind me, slid the microphone away and advised me to calm down and stay on topic. The meeting went much better. Staying calm and on topic, I managed many more successful meetings. In 1983, starting my money management business, Tom alone prodded me into computer usage. Even built my first computer. He was an early client as was his Mother. Evidently, I taught Tom something because, as you see above, his hobby became trading stocks on line. I could never have succeeded in my business without Tom plunging me into computer usage. “ Fondly remembered and sadly missed. My memories of Marquette WERE memories of Tom ("Toad").

“ Went to High School with Tom and have great memories of this great man! Sorry we never got together after school, but did have some phone conversations. Prayers for the family.
