“ I grew up with Thomas, baseball, and Boy Scouts. Its been years but I would often think about the best time of my life and Thomas Sullivan was part of that amazing time. Thank you Thomas you were always good to me and my sister and parents. My heart goes out to your brother Michael and your parents.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. How terrible to have to bury your child. My husband passed away 4 years ago and as the priest told me, he is just living in another zip code for now and he will be well taken care of until we can be together again. I'm so sorry for your loss. Marlene (Guindon) McElmeel. Class of 65
