“ Dear John, My heart breaks for your loss. I am speechless. I just ran into recently at Canyon Crest Town Center with my husband. You were with your lovely boys and we gave each other a hug. My husband later asked me about how I knew you and I told him how fond of you I have become over the years...meeting you almost 20 years ago when we were both assigned to the misdemeanor calendar in Corona for several months...you the DA and me the PD. You reminded me of my own son. What an honorable man you have always been. Then, as we both moved on, both of us defense attorneys meeting in court over the years in co defendant cases. I have watched you grow from a wonderful single young man to a wonderful husband and father. I can only comfort you with what I know: you will survive this terrible grief and be happy again. With great affection, and sincere condolences, Evelyn Cordner

“ Veronica was unique. Her outer beauty shined as much as her inner beauty. God used you in way's that you might have not realized. I admired you for how you embraced people with so much love. You were a living testimony to a faithful woman. I appreciate you and I have been greatly blessed to have met you

“ Veronica was truly a special person. I met her at RCDS when her son Luke and my daughter Sydney went to school together. She was always so welcoming and kind. She was also a big team player and made sure all the moms got to help out with class parties and events. She will truly be missed. May her soul rest in peace.

“ I am so sadden by the news of Veronica's passing. I worked with John and only met Veronica around town shopping. In those brief meetings, she was so friendly and funny. Beautiful person. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family and dear friends. As you bid farewell on this side of eternity to such a beautiful soul, I pray that God will blanket your hearts with His peace that surpasses understanding. My son Joseph, attended Notre Dame with Veronica's lovely daughter Michaela, (may they now sing together with the angels) I had only meet her in passing but even then I felt her warm and gentle spirit. May the creator of the universe wrap His loving arms around all those who loved and needed this wonderful lady.
