“ My Uncle Walter is my Mom Evelyn youngest brother, and was involved in me and my siblings lives we grew up with Uncle Walter being around.

As we grew up and I became a young man the fun continued. One of my best memories of Uncle is learning how to play dominos and how to cheat playing basketball 🏀 he use to hold us by the shorts to keep us from scoring 🏀. My Uncle and Aunt was there for me when I was recovering from cancer surgery. He was the best dressed in the family definitely I'm that apple falls not far from the tree. I LOVE YOU Unc see you soon 🙏🙏🙏

“ My Uncle Walter was my mom's (Lestine) Baby Brother and as the one of her siblings who was closest to my age, I think that I reserved a special place in my heart for him. He is the Uncle I recall wrestling with, joking with, and having tons of fun with as child growing up! I think that I connected with him because I am also the Baby Boy in my immediate family--which Uncle Walter would agree is a special place in the birth order!:) Indeed, he was number nine in the Rogers nine and God gave him a special personality to match that position! I understand that he was still making those around him laugh and smile until the very end and that's a special power! Thank you, Uncle Walter, for making us laugh and smile! We will always love and remember you!

“ Uncle Walt! One of my favorite Unc’s, but you all are. What can I say, you gave the best hugs, was always welcoming, kept it real and stayed fly. Im gonna miss the domino games and more importantly the smack talking lol. I know you said next time but Im so sad that we didn’t get that next game in. We miss you but will always hold you in our hearts. Rest well ❤️

“ My dear Walter,
It seemed at times in our marriage we were 80% opposites.
I know the other 20% is the covenant that made our endless Love "1 in a million".
31 yrs, we proved that opposites really do attract.
I miss your complex Love and everything that came in the bundle.
Thanks for the memories "Babe" they are forever woven into the fabric of my being.
To God be the Glory 🙏

“ Walter was my comfort in times of pain, my energizer when I felt unsure, My brother in all things, quick with a joke, assuring that all was well, even when storms swirled around him.
